Dear Parents / Carers

This week we are supporting the NSPCC in sharing their Talk PANTS campaign, which has been developed to help prevent abuse from happening to any child. Talk PANTS encourages parents and schools to have simple conversations with children to help keep them safe, teaching children five key messages:

- Privates are private.
- Always remember your body belongs to you.
- No means no.
- Talk about secrets that upset you.
- Speak up, someone can help.

Sharing messages such as these with children at an early age can be very beneficial in helping protect them. Research from the NSPCC also suggests that the messages are most valuable when taught at a young age.

For more information about the Talk PANTS campaign and materials visit nspcc.org.uk/pants.

Yours sincerely
